

Core Curriculum and B. A. Degrees

Faith Impact Bible Institute offers a Bachelor of Arts degree in Christian Care Counseling, Criminal Justice Management & Ethics, Psychology and Sociology. All degree granting programs consist of a minimum of thirty semester hours; along with the core curriculum listed below. The core curriculum is based on Intellectual competencies, Mathematics, Knowledge areas of Arts and Humanities, and Behavioral and Social Sciences.

Intellectual Competencies

English Composition

English Composition courses will develop critical thinking, reading, writing, information literacy, and research based writing skills.

Mathematics

Mathematics courses will develop thinking, logic, quantitative reasoning, and numerical relationships/patterns in behavioral/social and the physical phenomena.

Knowledge Areas

Arts and Humanities

Art courses will develop creatively, self-expression, aesthetics, and stimulation of thought. Topics include arts, fine arts, music and literature.

Humanities

Humanities courses will develop ethics and priorities, human experiences and development, contemporary life issues and responsibilities and social actions.

Behavioral and Social Sciences

Behavioral science courses will develop an understanding of human behavior, communications, and an analysis of human experience and development.

Social Sciences

Science courses will develop an understanding of human society and the interrelationship of the society phenomena.

Biology and Chemistry

Biology and Chemistry courses will develop knowledge through the scientific method, reasoning, and solutions to complex facts in nature.